Dedication

We the class of 1956 dedicate the 1956 "Bark" in memory of Marian I. Fahan.

Mrs. Fahan served as Kindergarten teacher in the Lytton Community School from 1951 until her death in an automobile accident in 1955. She will long be remembered for her wonderful service.

As a further tribute to Mrs. Fahan, the school board has taken action to name the new Kindergarten room in her honor, and a memorial fund has been established in her name to purchase equipment for the new room.

ANNUAL STAFF

We the editors of the 1956 "Bark" wish to thank the 1956 Annual Staff and the senior class for their fine co-operation and hard work in helping prepare the "Bark" We would also like to thank Mr. Lashier for the time and effort he spent working with us. Thanks, everyone.

To the 1957 Annual Staff: We wish you the best of luck on your 1957 "Bark".

CLASS POEM

OUR FUTURE

Our future is before us,
As from school days we depart.
We wish to say a few words
To all, before our journeys start.

We wish to thank our teachers
For their guidance, help, and praise.
And hope that we can use
Our learned intelligence in future days.

We wish an abundance of luck
To the classes that follow behind,
In hoping they will enjoy
All the memories on our mind.

Our school days won't be forgotten.
All the fun and work we recall.
For they have made our school days
Exciting and gay for all.

School days now we leave.
For the future we've been striving.
You may forget us-but remember our motto,
"Not at the top, but climbing."

Class flower: Yellow rose
Class motto: "Not at the top, but climbing."
Class colors: Bronze and yellow.

SENIORS AT KAYL

PROPHECY

The scene is ten years after graduation from dear old Lytton High. The seniors of the class of '56 have gathered for a reunion. Off in a corner, watching the proceedings are two teachers who will remain nameless here. They seem to be carrying on a conversation. So lets evesdrop a little, shall we?

Miss X: "Well I see all the old seniors are back. They have really been going places these last few years. Look there's Senator Dale Greene coming in. I understad that he's on a commission for the proposed use of squirt guns for national defense."

Miss Y: "Say isn't that Ron Miller with him? I hear he's a big important designer for General Motors. He was always drawing cars instead of doing school work."

Miss X: "Gee, this is interesting to stand around and watch these kids come in. Isn't that the Glasnapp twins coming through the door now? Do you know what they have been doing since graduation?"

Miss Y: "Junith is a secretary to that big game hunter, John Hammerhold. I think I'll ask her if she sits on one knee and the rifle on the other. And Janice has become, of all things, a warden in a womens prison."

Miss X: "Well, my goodness isn't that Russ Hutchinson and Ellis Byriel standing over by the punch table? I hear Ellis has been making good money in the hot rod business. I guess he won a cup the other day."

Miss Y: "Yes, I heard that too. And hasn't Russ been doing something revolutionary in the pickle business. I thought I read the other day that he invented a new way to pickle pickles."

Miss X: "Looks like a hen party over there, doesn't it? Isn't that Lois Freese, Ruth Boyd, and Connie Kelley over in the corner? I haven't heard what they've been up to. Do you know?"

Miss Y: "I hear that Ruth Boyd is the new president of the American Association for the Advancement of Tiddly-Winks. My, what an interesting job. I think Connie Kelley is the champion bowler of the United States. Heard she bowled 310 the other day. Connie says it wasn't easy even though the experts say it is impossible. Do you remember how shy Lois used to be? Well, she certainly has changed. Now she is a bullfighter in Mexico."

Miss X: "I heard that the music for tonight is going to be provided by the Rock and Roll Squares. Isn't the bandleader Dean Carlson, and his drummer Duane Peyton, the one who is known as the hottest drummer this side of the Congo? Remember how they used to hate to jitterbug?"

Miss Y: "To bad Marlene Cleland couldn't make it tonight."

Miss X: "Yes, it is. Wonder what she's doing now?"

Miss Y: "Well, don't tell anybody but there is a rumor around that she is the redheaded wrestler, Tutti Frutti. And did you know that her manager is Glen Bartels?"

Miss X: "I wonder why all the girls are crowding around that man over there? Why, isn't that John Everts?"

Miss Y: "Say, did you know that he is that famous hair dresser from a New York salon?"

Miss X: "Oh, you mean Ze John?"

Miss Y: "What I wouldn't give for him to fix my hair. How thrilling."

Miss X: "Oh guess what. The most horrible thing happened to me as I was coming here today. I had a flat tire."
Miss Y: "Oh you did. How did you get it fixed?"
Miss X: "Oh, I went to this garage and a young lady fixed it."
Miss Y: "Which garage was this?"
Miss X: "Oh, let me see. I believe that the name was "Schramm Service Station." This lady had three of the cutest little boys. Their names were Lenus, Jr., George, and Gary. I believe she said her name used to be Georgia Keiser."
Miss Y: "I can hardly wait for that great movie star to arrive. She graduated from this class too. My, what a small world. Her name before she changed it was Karen Smith; it is now Dimples Jones."
Miss X: "The other day while at the circus I saw another old classmate, Carolyn Foley. I'm sorry she couldn't make it tonight but it seems that her fleas haven't been feeling well. So she had to stay with them. They say she has the best trained flea act in the world."
Miss Y: "That's what I heard too. I wonder where Daryl Schade is. He's a mortician now you know. That kind of work would sure give me the creeps."
Miss X: "Do you remember Duane Shadle in school?"
Miss Y: "Yes, I do. He has an escort business now you know. It's called Pete's Escort Business. He even has special rates, such as holding hands, which comes free of charge."
Miss X: "Looks like June Bardole coming in. Didn't think she would make it tonight. As you know she cooks for 170 lumberjacks out in a camp in Oregon."
Miss Y: "Here comes our society lady, Karen Oestreich, only she isn't Karen Oestreich anymore. She is now the wife of the big financier, Mr. Phillip Francis Shultzheimersmittsburger the third. She is president of the Baltimore Orioles Bird Watching Club of Baltimore, Maryland."
Miss X: "My land, who is that gentleman over there that keeps singing, "Give me wine, red-heads and song?"
Miss Y: "Land a goshen, isn't that David MacLean? Isn't he the one who just got off that atomic submarine, the Seawolf, after being under the sea for two years?"
Miss X: "Why I believe it is. I wonder why he keeps singing, "Give me wine, red-heads and song?"
Miss Y: "I'm sure I don't know. Say, do you notice anything queer going on here?"
Miss X: "Yes, I do. Isn't that Rhonda Kreft peeking around the punch table? I hear she is an investigating agent for the FBI."
Miss Y: "She's chasing someone and that someone looks like Glenna Smith. I wonder what kind of orneryness she's been up to now?"
Miss X: "Don't ask me how I know, but Agent Kreft is probably trying to make her pay her back taxes."
Miss Y: "As the little man once said to the fat lady who had fallen in his lap as a result of an escalator ride, when he reached the bottom. "This is as far as we go."

Thursday, September 29, was the beginning of the 1955 Homecoming festivities. That night the annual pep rally was held in the gymnasium. Skits were given by all four classes in high school with the junior class receiving first prize and the seniors, second prize.

Following the skits, there was a snake dance led by the cheerleaders which ended in the square on Main Street. The junior high then presented their skit around the bonfire. In conclusion, a dummy representing Galva was thrown into the bonfire. Lenus Schramm, an alumnus, gave a short pep talk.

The next day, the finishing preparations were made on the floats and the parade began at 10:00 a.m. Leading the parade was the American Legion Color Guard, followed by the Lytton High School band and floats sponsored by the school, community organizations, and business places. The prize winning float was entitled "Guiding L.H.S. to a Victory" and was made by the seniors. The second prize float was entitled "Worming Our Way to a Victory" and was made by the sophomores.

Because the new addition to the school house took up part of the Lytton football field, the Homecoming game was played on the Sac City football field on Friday at 3:00 p.m. Galva, our opponent, was victorious. At the half of the game, the 1955 Homecoming Queen, Rhonda Kreft, was crowned by the team captain, Dean Carlson. Her attendants were Georgia Keiser and Judy Kreft.

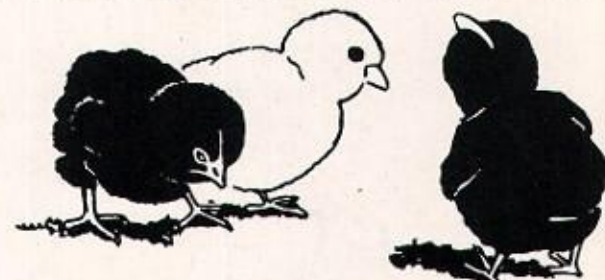

That evening a dance was held in the school gym with music provided by Mrs. Richards of Sac City and her Hammond organ. A short program was presented and a lunch was served.
